ENTREX LEGAL SETTLEMENT

MARKET

The Entrex Legal Settlement Market was created to support regulated market constituents interested in Legal Settlement securities.

The United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) reports that in 2018 $2.9 Trillion of private securities were made between private corporate buyers and sellers.

The United States Small Business Administration reports that 90% of transactions are made from within 75 miles of the venture:

Local investors: investing locally.

The Entrex Legal Settlement Market offers a regulatory compliant platform to bring safety, security and efficiency to this economic and employment sector of our economy.

The Entrex Legal Settlement Market licenses technology from the Entrex Capital Market, LLC.

Entrex's technology is a blockchain enabled software platform which originates, structures, offers, places, trades, settles and services private security transactions.

Our IBM Technology platform has been continually developed over 19 years and was recently profiled in an IBM case-study (Click for download).

THE ENTREX LEGAL SETTLEMENT MARKET TO BUY, SELL & TRADE

The Entrex Legal Settlement Market was founded to apply a regulatory compliant trading methodology to bring safety, security and efficiency to the trading of the securities of legal settlements.

The market offers a proven and regulatory reviewed trading methodology which provides access to capital for Issuers and safety, security and efficiency for Investors.

Entrex provides exposure, credibility and liquidity to the companies that provide the employment and economic growth of our nation.

INVESTORS

Local Investors often find it difficult and inefficient to buy, sell and trade the securities of legal settlements.

The Entrex Legal Settlement Market has created a regulatory compliant trading platform bringing simplicity and efficiency to those challenges. Similar to the look and feel of public company trading; Entrex makes it simple to buy and sell legal settlements, similar to investment platforms for public securities, making investing simple, safe and efficient.

BROKERS and RIAs

Brokers can now efficiently originate and place Legal Settlements through a regulatory compliant platform similar to traditional stock markets.

Whether clients are investors or issuers Entrex offers an efficient solution to access local buyers and sellers through a network of Legal Settlement Brokers and RIAs supporting legal settlement transactions.

LEGAL SETTLEMENT ISSUERS/SELLERS

Entrex offers legal settlement issuers exposure and credibility to investors while creating a liquidity tool for investors.

The Entrex Legal Settlement Market was founded to apply a regulatory compliant trading methodology to bring safety, security and efficiency to the investing and trading of the securities of legal settlements.
